Homology-Restricted MegaScale test doubles with both singles measured: observed double dG against the latent additive expectation of each link (distant doubles should lie on the curve)

